Fully loaded log truck proves too heavy

VANKOUGHNET — As many as 40 residents in the Longford Reserve area were stranded for two days as a result of a collapsed bridge which severed the only crossing over the Black River last week.

A flat bed truck loaded down with logs coming from the Longford Reserve, was crossing the Peterson Bridge over the Black River near Vankoughnet when the bridge collapsed. Keith Cowen 28, of Haliburton, was driving the truck across the bridge when the back wheels of the cab reached the end of the structure, the concrete foundation gave way, leaving the truck and trailer at right angles to each other resting on the river bed. Mr. Cowen was not injured in the accident.

There was apparently no limit to the weight that the bridge could hold and Mr. Cowen said that he crossed the bridge several times over the past two months without any reservations as to its safety. He estimated that the combined weight of the truck and its cargo was somewhere in the area of 25 tons. Some observers, following the accident, said they believed that the bridge could only stand a load of up to 10 tons.

While there is only one permanent resident in the area across the river from the incident, there could be as many as 41 cottagers in the area that has now become virtually inaccessible. There is one private road leading out of the area but it would take a jeep to navigate the mud and rocks. A trail may be cut through the woods to provide an exit to those stranded persons.

Mr. Cowen said that before proceeding across the bridge he squared off the truck and proceeded at a speed of no more than five miles an hour. He said that there was no indication that the bridge was going to give way and said it happened too fast for him to even begin to think what was happening. He managed to escape the wreckage with little problem.

A crane was to be called from Orillia to remove the wreckage and it was believed that it would probably be two days before a Bailey bridge could be constructed. The truck was owned by Hyland Lumber of Haliburton and it was returning there with the shipment of logs.

Woman suffers broken leg in boating mishap Saturday

HORSESHOE LAKE — At about 4:15 pm on Saturday afternoon, a 17' boat powered by a 140 hp motor was being operated on the lake by Gary T. Leatherdale 25, of Orillia with three passengers aboard. The vessel turned sharply near the shore throwing the driver and two of the passengers out of it. It then continued for a short distance before striking the shore. The lone passenger remaining in the boat Margot G. Menzies 18, of Clinton, suffered a possible broken leg after the boat hit and was taken to Peterborough hospital.

Damage to the boat and motor was set at $2800 by Constable Boyd Jarvis.

BRIDGE GIVES WAY

Shown above as it appeared last Tuesday, this Hyland Lumber logging truck with a small trailer jackknifed when the Peterson bridge collapsed at Vankoughnet.

Driver Keith Cowen of Haliburton was able to get out unharmed and the truck and trailer were removed later last week by a crane. More pictures inside.

Legion Carnival on July 18th

HALIBURTON — Next week's Haliburton Legion Carnival will feature performances by four outstanding marching bands, Legion officials conferred over the past weekend.

Marching and playing for the carnival and parade, slated for Wednesday, July 18th at 7 pm will be the Ontario Provincial Police Pipes and Drums band, the Haliburton Legion Pipe band, the Bracebridge Legion band and the Canadian Knights drum corp.

From Peterborough, the Canadian Knights are comprised of some 50 children ranging in age from 8-15 years. Not only did this band place first in its class in North America, it outscored older drum corps as well.

Following the carnival parade the Canadian Knights will present a colourful precision drill to music at the fairgrounds.

Expected, but still unconfirmed is the Port Hope Sea Cadet band.

In most instances the participating bands will present individual band concerts following the parade.

The carnival parade will also be highlighted by four visiting Legion colour parties, from Apsley, iKnmount, Coboconk and Wilberforce.

Man falls from dam, drowns in swift water near Haliburton

HALIBURTON — The joy of photography turned into an incident of horror for Mrs. Mary Irvine of 391 Barrie Road, Orillia as she saw her husband, who was taking pictures at the time, step back and into a stop-log opening at the top of a dam. William Irvine 74, fell in and was swept to his death by the fast moving water.

The incident which occurred on the Oblong Lake dam about 10 miles north of the village, happened between 10:30 and 11 am Tuesday.

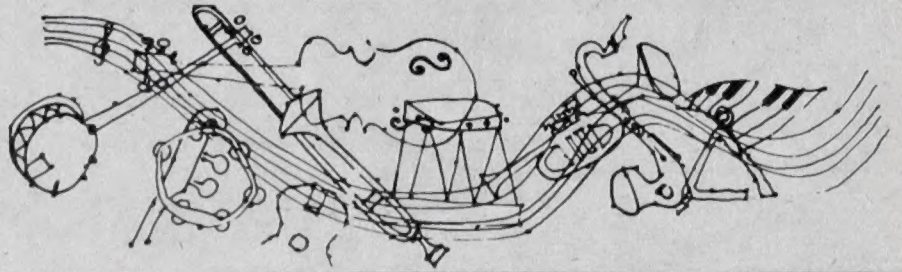

According to the Minden OPP the body was recovered a short time later just a short distance from the dam. Coroner was Dr. Harry Good of Haliburton. A police spokesman said no inquest or post mortem would be held.

Also marking this 34th annual Haliburton Legion carnival will be live entertainment Wednesday, starting the Ike Kelnick band, plus dancing, bar facilities bingo and an outstanding midway opening at 1 pm and featuring a variety of rides, games and booths.

Caping the days events will be the draw for a Ford Thunderbird to be held at the Haliburton curling club.

The carnival is sponsored annually by the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 129, Haliburton.

OPP urge boaters to carry life saving equipment

The OPP marine unit from Minden is out each day now in the county checking vessels and cottages. Each vessel not over 5.5 metres are required to carry approved lifejackets or personal floatation devices for each person on board, two paddles or oars and a bailer. If the vessel is over 5.5 metres but under 8 metres the only change is that an anchor can be substituted for the paddles or oars and if power driven a class B1 fire extinguisher must be carried. The marine officers are still finding many vessels lacking life-saving equipment and persons with non-approved life belts.

There have been two reported boat collisions in the County this year, and OPP suggest that all boaters exercise caution when operating vessels due to the number of boaters operating on lakes. Extreme caution should be exercised at night when lights are required.

For more information or a boating safety guide check with the Minden OPP on Hwy. 35.

Open window approach for business

Business people who want to discuss Ontario government policies and regulations that affect them now have a point of contact in the Ontario ministry of industry and tourism.

"The ministry has established a 'one window' approach to help business people voice their concerns and problems about government regulations and policies to people who can act on their behalf," said industry and tourism minister Larry Grossman.

"While industry and tourism has few regulatory functions, we will act as the main contact for Ontario's business people seeking the right information source in other government ministries which do administer regulations," he said.

Government procedures are also being examined to ensure they do not adversely affect business but are as simple as possible to follow.

Business people wishing to discuss Ontario government policy, regulations and procedures should contact Peter Friedman, manager of customer service, deregulation and industry support services, Ontario ministry of industry and tourism, Queen's Park or telephone (416) 965-3405.

The main source for information about ministry of industry and tourism programs, counselling and assistance remains the ministry's regional offices located throughout Ontario.

A System Gone Berserk

By W. Roger Worth

Somewhere along the line the process of getting food products from the farm gate to the dinner table has gone berserk, making life difficult for farmers, supermarket suppliers, and smaller grocery outlets.

In fact, Canada's supposedly efficient food-distribution system may be costing consumers a great deal more money than they should be paying.

At the heart of the process are the powerful food chains and the "discounts" they force suppliers to pay.

As it happens, supermarkets pay the full list price for products they sell, then force manufacturers, processors, even farm groups, to kick back as much as 30% of the cost to the chains.

It's like an individual selling a car for $1,000, then returning $300 to the purchaser, reducing the net selling price to $700. To the uninitiated, it sounds ridiculous, turning one simple transaction into two.

An Ontario Royal Commission has brought the issue to public attention, but the messy kickback scheme exists in every province in the country.

In fact, the "discount" process has become so widespread and pervasive that some supermarkets are now taking in more money from kickbacks than they earn from company profits.

Loblaws Cos. president David Nichol, for example, claims his supermarket chain collected $14 million - $16 million in discounts last year, vs $4 million in after-tax profits.

The food chains argue that money from discounts cuts the cost of advertising and loss-leader specials, encouraging supermarkets to buy in bulk.

In turn, this allows manufacturers and processors to cut production costs, they claim.

Nevertheless, while there is some substance to their argument, it seems an odd way to do business.

In addition to "discounts," suppliers are also charged thousands of dollars to get their products on supermarket shelves. Sometimes this means local Canadian products never appear in chain stores.

The supermarkets have apparently been able to force the use of the kickback system through threat of delisting products, although one major Canadian processor, McCain Foods, has managed to resist paying. But that's an exception.

"Virtually everyone pays," says a small manufacturer. "Otherwise we'd lose our markets."

Clear Lake collision results in $1700 damage to vehicles

Last Saturday an accident on the Clear Lake Road took an interesting turn for investigating OPP Constable Jim Solway. Two cars collided on the road with both drivers having the same last name and age but they were not related.

Lawrence Hirstwood 23, of Mississauga, received minor injuries while Douglas Hirstwood 23, of Norland escaped uninjured.

The Mississauga man was northbound when his car collided with the Norland man's car near the crest of a hill. The Mississauga car received damage of $700 while the Norland pickup was damaged for $1000.

Beaverbrook Golf Club gives up 4th hole in one

On July 2nd, Dan Hutton of Oshawa aced the 230 yard par 3, sixth hole using a three wood. On June 28th, Warren Workman of Calgary, Alberta aced one and Dean Hewitt also of Minden got his first on the 8th using a seven iron. The first hole-in-one this year went to Gord Cation of Willowdale on June 22nd at Pinestone.

Harris Steele leads Merchants over Blue Jays in 6-5 thriller

MINDEN — The Merchants finally came up with a victory over the Bobcaygeon Blue Jays this season. They had lost 6-3 in nine innings and then 5-4 early in the season, however it was a different story last Wednesday at the Minden Ball Park as they came through with a 6-5 victory in the bottom of the 7th inning on three straight doubles by Rick Hartwick, Barry Shaw and Harris Steele.

The Blue Jays opened the game quickly with two runs in the first, a single by Monty Crowe and two straight doubles by Dennis Crosbie and Marty Nicholls.

Minden got these back in the bottom of the inning when Kirk Hewitt drew a walk, Barry Shaw drove him home with a triple and then Harris Steele singled to score Shaw. Minden went ahead in the second on a walk to Brain Shaw a double by Gene Newell and a single by Hewitt. Rick Hartwick upped the count to 4-2 in the third with a home run over the right field fence.

Bobcaygeon got things together in the sixth inning when they tied the game on two singles a hit batsmen and two Merchant errors. They then went on top 5-4 in the top of the seventh on a homer by Glen Dunlop and that seemed to be the end of the Merchants. However, the heroics of Hewitt, Shaw and Steele gave the home side a 6-5 victory and gave them a seasons record of 7-6, good enough for fourth place in league standings.

Winning pitcher for the Merchants was Rick Hartwick (1-0) making his first start of the season after Jack Snell had pitched the first 12 games. Hartwick gave up five runs, only three earned, on nine hits, hit one batter, walked one and fanned five. The losing pitcher was Roger Harrison who gave up six runs on 12 hits, walked four and struck out three.

The next game on Wednesday evening at 8 will have Lindsay Merchants tangling with Minden. The seasons record between these two teams is square at one apiece.

On Sports

BY JOHN DALTON

Now it's football season. NFL-style, at least.

With the early July openings of the 1979 pre-season training camps, here's a glance at how things shape up for the NFL's 60th season:

* Pittsburgh, which beat Dallas 35-31 in Super Bowl XIII, is the defending NFL champion. The next Super Bowl is Jan. 20 in the Rose Bowl.

* The NFL's best teams (judging by their 1978 records): Pittsburgh, 14-2; Dallas, 12-4; Los Angeles, 12-4; New England, 11-5; Miami, 11-5; Houston, 10-6; and Denver, 10-6. The worst team last season was San Francisco, at 2-14.

* First 1979 pre-season contest is Oakland-Dallas in the Hall of Fame Game at Canton, Ohio, on July 28. First exhibition weekend is Aug. 3-5.

* On Sept. 1, the 224-game regular season begins; it ends Dec. 17. The 28 NFL teams each play 16 regular season games. Ten clubs will make the playoffs.

* For TV fans: Seven pre-season games will be shown nationally. Twenty-six regular season games will be telecast nationally, with ABC showing 16 Monday night games, three Thursday night games and one Sunday night game.

* New head coaches for 1979: Ray Perkins, N.Y. Giants; Bill Walsh, San Francisco; Tom Flores, Oakland, and Ron Erhardt, New England.

* NFL attendance in 1978 hit a record 12.7 million, helped by expansion of the regular season from 14 to 16 contests. Per game average: 57,017. No-shows totaled just 7.2 percent — the lowest in six years.

* Most-popular 1978

teams (that is, NFL attendance leaders, in order): Giants, Broncos, Bucs, Browns, Eagles, Lions, Cowboys and Seahawks.

* The current draft produced 168 offensive players, 150 defensive and 12 specialists (six punters, five kickers and one returner). The largest number of college stars drafted at any position was 54 for linebackers, including the league's No. 1 pick (by Buffalo): Tom Cousineau of Ohio State.

* Schools contributing the most 1979 NFL draftees: Notre Dame, 10; Oklahoma, 10; Penn State, nine, USC, eight, and Nebraska, eight.

* Top passers (off 1978 marks): Roger Staubach, Dallas, 84.9 (rating); Terry Bradshaw, Pittsburgh, 84.8; Dan Fouts, San Diego, 83.2; Bob Griese, Miami, 82.4, and Archie Manning, New Orleans, 81.6. (Bradshaw tossed 28 TDs.)

* Top runners: Earl Campbell, Houston, 1,450 yards; Walter Payton, Chicago, 1,395; Tony Dorsett, Dallas, 1,325; Del Williams, Miami, 1,258, and Wilbert Montgomery, Philadelphia, 1,220.

* Most TDs: David Sims, Seattle, 15; Campbell, Houston, 13; John Jefferson, San Diego, 13; Payton, Chicago, 11; Horace Ivory, New England, 11, and Lynn Swann, Pittsburgh, 11.

* Most passes caught: Ricky Young, Minnesota, 88; Tony Galbreath, New Orleans, 74; Steve Largent, Seattle, 71, and Ahmad Rashad, Minnesota, 66.

* Last season, 108 of 224 games were decided by seven points or less. That's 48.2 percent. The teams averaged 36.7 points each.

* Newly outlawed this season is use of the helmet by a tackler to butt, spear or ram any player who is not in a position to defend himself.

Gears already in motion for 1980 Summer Games

The excitement over the 1980 Ontario Summer Games has already begun to mount. As the result of an aggressive bid on the part of local organizers, the games are being held in Peterborough next year. Culture and Recreation Minister Reuben Baetz was in town last week to drop off the first installment of provincial funds for the event—a cheque for $191,000.

The games, to be held from August 22 to 25, 1980, will include 21 different sports—everything from lawn bowling to wrestling.

2,200 athletes are expected to take part.

A series of pre-Ontario Games events are planned for this summer, partly to stir up enthusiasm and partly to whip local sports organizations and facilities into shape for the big event. This past Saturday, June 16, the first such pre-game event was held—a flatwater regatta in Peterborough's Little Lake, which featured rowing, canoeing, and kayaking.

HALIBURTON — The 17th annual Haliburton Guild of Fine Arts Show and Sale opened on Friday evening in Haliburton Senior Public School, with hundreds attending the opening ceremonies. Once again the Guild has put on a show of Highlands crafts second to none. The show has something for everyone, from beautifully handmade bedspreads, pottery macrame, life like dolls, paintings and photos, hand made clothing, wall hangings to handmade jewellery. If you don't get around to the show why not drop into the Rails End Gallery in Haliburton this Saturday. The official opening takes place at 2 pm and many of the above crafts will be on display by some of the County's extremely talented craftsmen like— Barbara Peel, Donna Brohm, Judy Chapman, Carole McLean, Bea Hunt, Marion Langdon and Jean Farrell plus many, many more

HAY HARVEST

Bales of summer hay lie in sunbaked farmer's fields around Haliburton after the last few weeks of gathering.

The bales will soon disappear from the fields to be stored in barns for the coming winter as feed.

Looking Over Clover

It wouldn't be summer without insects, some like the pesky mosquito, we can easily do without. On the other hand, there are those that add another dimension of colour and beauty to the fields and forests around us. These two moths brought a dash of dusty orange to a clover flower recently.

• Looking for a way to bring beef in under budget? Get to know beef cuts other than tender steaks and large roasts, and even ground beef. Consider beef ribs plate meat, liver, kidneys, blade chuck roasts, shanks. Substitute shoulder pork chops for center cut chops, round steak for flank steak. And, discover the technique of marinating less expensive meats!

• Waste not, want not with Hodgepodge Soup from the home economists at Lawry's. Keep a container in the freezer and fill it with leftovers from each meal — a spoonful of gravy, an ounce of chicken or beef, spaghetti or chili, vegetables, rice or mashed potatoes. When you have enough for a meal, if it needs extra liquid, add spaghetti sauce mix with mushrooms or au jus gravy mix and enough water to give it a soup-like consistency. The result is delicious.

• Chili-Cheese Eggs is an easy, economical main dish. Line the bottom of an 8x8x2-inch baking dish with one 8-oz. can of whole green chilis, rinsed. Grate ¾ pound Monterey Jack cheese and arrange half on chilis. Cover with another 8 oz. of chilis. Combine ¼ cup milk, 8 eggs and 1 package (1¼ oz.) Lawry's Taco Seasoning Mix; beat well. Pour over chilis and cover with remaining cheese. Bake at 350° F for 30 minutes or until puffy and lightly browned. Serves six.

• Stretch meat protein for dishes such as chop suey, stews and more by using less meat than usual and adding shelled peanuts. The dish will have a nice texture and maintain its nutritional level at the same time.

Extensive damage was done to the undercarriage of Hyland Lumber's log truck when it dropped to the river bed last Tuesday. The truck and trailer were removed by crane and the truck is now in for repairs at Boice Motors in Haliburton.
